Lt. Kyle Davis and his wife, Anna

LCpl. Brady Edwards

Cy-Fair Magazine salutes the men and women of Cy-Fair who are protecting our country by serving in the armed forces. We thank you for your commitment to preserving the freedoms we enjoy here in the U.S.

Brady Edwards

LCpl. Brady Edwards, son of Dee and Kim Edwards of Cypress, served two years of duty as a member of the Marine's Silent Drill Platoon, stationed at the Marine Barracks 8th and I in Washington, D.C. LCpl. Edwards will be re-assigned to Camp Pendleton, CA to await deployment. He is a 2006 graduate of Cypress Creek High School.

Russell Lane

Russell Lane represents the third generation of his family to join the military. Lane is a 2004 graduate of Cypress Falls High School and was top in his class in military intelligence training.

He is currently serving in Afghanistan, on the Task Force Odin-Afghanistan in the 21st Calvary Brigade. He recently welcomed his first daughter when he returned for a break in March.

Kyle Davis

Lt. Kyle Davis is a 2003 graduate of Cypress Creek High School and a 2007 graduate of the U.S. Military Academy at West Point. He recently returned after spending a year in Mosul, Iraq.

He received the Army Combat Action Badge and a Bronze Star while serving as a platoon leader doing IED route clearance and later as a company executive officer and battalion task force engineer. He is currently stationed in Fort Hood with the First Calvary Third Brigade 3/8 Echo Co.

Michael Fenerty II

Michael P. Fenerty II, SPC with Fourth Battallion, 23rd Infantry Regiment, Tomahawks, is currently serving his first tour of duty in Afghanistan as part of Operation Enduring Freedom.

Prior to that, he was stationed at Fort Lewis in Seattle after joining the U.S. Army following graduation from Cypress Ridge High School in 2006. As a student, he excelled in academics, serving as a member of the National Honor Society, as well as athletics, starting for three years on the varsity football team and serving on the wrestling team.
