

Cy-Fair Magazine gives a shout-out to all the good news happening in our community

Superintendent's Fun Run

The Fun Run raised more than $52,000 this year for the Cy-Fair Educational Foundation (CFEF). The money raised will be used for scholarships by the CFEF.

Inspiring HANDS

The charity golf tournament included a Wall of Wishes, which provided an opportunity for individuals to sponsor a person for a camp or ridership award. The tournament raised over $18,000 and has funded four veteran honor trips.

Christ the Redeemer Catholic Church

The St. Joseph Altar ministry raised $7,220 for Cypress Assistant Ministries at their spaghetti lunch.

Spring Creek Barbeque

The company has donated to many charities which focus on youth sports, schools, teachers, and churches. The average annual donations exceed $2 million with over $400,000 contributed to the Cy-Fair community each year.

SpringHill Suites

Representatives from the Marriott Chasewood Park location visited Bleyl Middle School to donate art supplies. SpringHill Suites launched the SaveArt! program to promote students' self-esteem and confidence while aiding in social and academic development.

North Cypress Medical Center

The medical center received the 2016 Women's Choice Award for one of America's best stroke centers, America's best hospitals for bariatric surgery, and America's best hospitals for orthopedics.

Village on the Park

The community teamed up with Leadership North Houston to collect 911 bears for local law enforcement to give to children in crisis.

MOD Pizza

During their grand opening, the Towne Lake location donated 100% of their profits to the Cy-Fair Educational Foundation. The company also gave away free pizza to the first 52 customers.

Northwest Harris County Go Red for Women

The committee donated $25,000 to Beth Eaton which she will use to fund an American Heart Association program of her choice. The program focuses on helping people monitor their blood pressure and hypertension.

Randolph Brooks Federal Credit Union

The company donated $1,250 to Jersey Village High School after students were named the winner of the 2016 Celebrate Texas Public Schools Video Contest.

FedEx

The company donated $7,500 to the Cy-Fair Educational Foundation.

North Houston Veterinary Specialists

An animal blood bank has been set up and will provide services to primary care veterinarians and the Houston pet community. Donor pets receive many free veterinary services.

Taylor Morrison

Woodard Elementary School received $15,000 in playground equipment from Taylor Morrison. The principal of Woodard presented a plaque to the home builder during a staff meeting.
